Superintendent's Highlights

The District remains committed to the progress of quality education for all students. Annually, the District's Strategic Plan is updated with goals and strategies revisited and revised, with input from staff, board members, and community members. Progress and benchmarks are documented formally at least twice per year, and individual building, department, and staff goals are updated annually.

The District maintains exceptional standards for administration and instruction, working towards the common goal of continuous improvement in all areas.

Construction of a new Multi-Purpose Building at St. Maries Middle School was initiated and completed, and all facilities have been updated and improved.
